

Stewartstown Harps GAC Weekly Notes – 30/08/2010

Junior Championship

The senior side qualified for the Junior championship semi final following a good victory over Dungannon on Thursday night. A very strong first half performance saw the side go in leading by six at half time, helped by goals from Ryan Devlin and man of the match James Kelly. In the second half, we were harshly reduced to 13 men but great defensive work from the whole team saw us win by 6 points. Final score 2-13 to 0-13. Scorers were James Kelly 1-4, Ryan Devlin 1-4, Gareth Devlin 0-4 and John Devlin 0-1. The team will now face Brackaville in the semi final which will be played after the All Ireland final.

Reserve Championship

The reserves face Dungannon in the semi final of the reserve championship on Friday night. The game is in Derrylaughan with a 6.45 throw in. Good luck to the players and management for the game and all support would be appreciated.

ACL

The seniors and reserves are in league action this Sunday with home games versus Glenelly. Throw in for the games are 12.00 and 1.30 and all support would be appreciated.

Minors

The minors will face Ardboe in the league semi final. As of yet, no date or time has been set for the game but all players are asked to keep attending training in preparation for the game.

Under 16's

The under 16s were defeated by Ardboe in the league last week. They completed their league campaign on Monday night when they defeated Moortown at Mulaghmoyle. This win cemented their place in the league quarter finals and the draw will be made in the near future. The next game for the lads is the championship where they face Trillick at home. The game takes place on Saturday at 5.30. Good luck to players and management for the game.

Under 13's

The under 13 team will be competing in grade 2 and the first game is on Monday night at home to Cookstown. Good luck to players and management for the campaign.

Recreational tournament

The next recreational tournament takes place on Friday at MUSA.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the Lowe family following the death of Joe Rafferty. Also to the Mc Gurk family following the death of Mickey who is uncle of committee member Majella Quinn. May they rest in peace.
